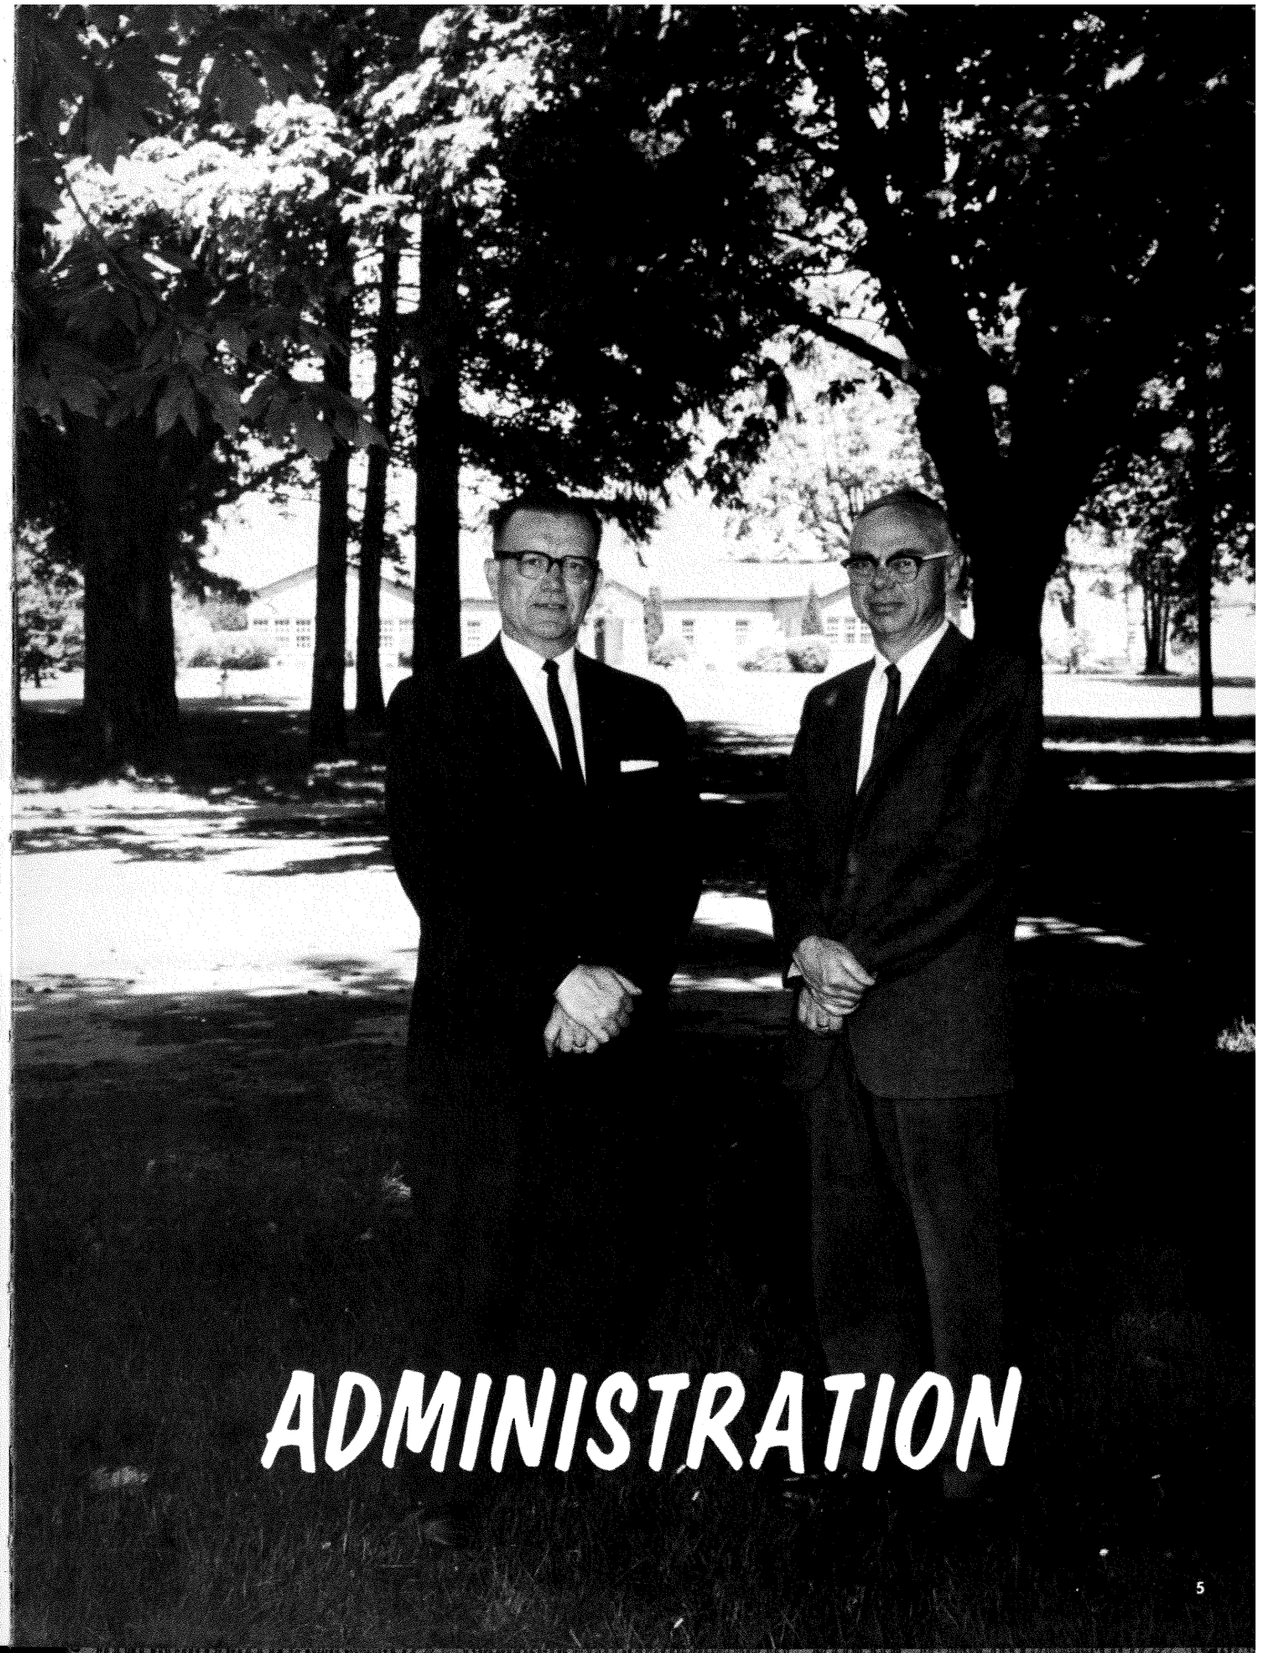
Dedication

DONALD H. LINDGREN

"The man behind the scenes" is the capacity in which Mr. Donald H. Lindgren, architect, serves George Fox College. His friendliness toward everyone and willingness to answer questions about the Shambaugh Library and Minthorn Hall have made him a real Christian "blue-print" for students and faculty members alike.

His untiring enthusiasm has inspired students, faculty, and community groups to strive to make George Fox College a school with high aims and standards. With gratitude for helping us build these ideals we dedicate this 1962 L'Ami to you,

Donald H. Lindgren, Architect.



ADMINISTRATION

President Ross

1961
1966
Operation DIAMOND JUBILEE

GEORGE FOX COLLEGE

NEWBERG, OREGON

Dear Students:

The year 1961-62 should be remembered as the year of the first major break-through on the Diamond Jubilee. True, the student union has been in service for four years, and plans have been made over the years by the college board and others, but for students (and all of us) plans must eventually become reality, and dreams must evolve into bricks and mortar and glass and appropriate furnishings. What was done in these actual accomplishments this year? The science hall was finished and furnished, with the dedication at Homecoming. So also the tennis courts. Then--the library, the new dormitory, and the adult housing went up all through the winter months. Nearly a million dollars worth of construction was carried on apace during the school year.

The quality of building is outstanding for a small college. There is beauty and integrity in every line. Details and supporting features are done with honesty. In the words of Longfellow:

Each minute and unseen part,
For the gods see everywhere.

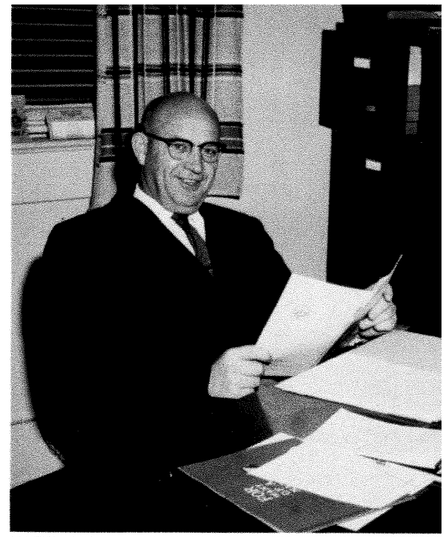
There is imagination in the library "of the future." The dormitory is replete with excellent features and appointments.

And now the student body and all concerned are involved in the serious and exciting plans for an enlarged student union and other facilities. George Fox College is on the march! We thank God for these days of victory and accomplishment--and you were there!

With every good wish for all of you,

Miles C. Ross

Dean of Students: Kenneth Williams

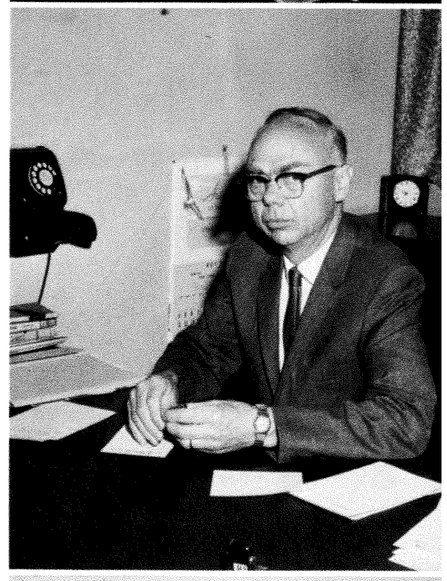


Woodrow Wilson has written that "a man comes to himself only when he has found the best that is in him, and has satisfied his heart with the highest achievement he is fit for. It is only then that he knows of what he is capable and what his heart demands."

We endeavor to provide opportunity for students to come to themselves by providing in a liberal arts education with a full range of co-curricular activities the privilege for each student to work to his fullest capacity in a variety of areas.

George Fox College is dedicated to the premise that the best in a person is discovered and his highest achievement is reached only when each finds his right relationship to Jesus Christ. The dedication of one's life to Jesus as Lord and Master thrusts unlimited responsibility on every person to achieve to the optimum of his capabilities. Young people who have learned to lose themselves in service to Christ learn to live for others, and thus attain the highest achievement for any man.

Dean of Faculty: George Moore



It has been a privilege to return to the faculty of George Fox College. The past year has intensified the conviction that the students and faculty have increasing opportunities in learning, in teaching, and in the integration of Christian truth into the total curriculum. My concern is that we learn the "futility of self-effort" early, and that we make use of the divine resources promised us by the Christ who said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life."

Dean of Administration: Harvey Campbell

There are many formulas for success offered to college students. May I suggest that the students of George Fox College consider this quotation as a worthy goal.

"To know the laws of God in nature and revelation, and then to fashion the affections and will into harmony with those laws--this is education."

Year of Construction

Through the seasons the students at George Fox have acted as sidewalk superintendents in the construction of three new structures on campus. Through the rain in the fall, the mud in the winter, and the dust in the spring, we have wandered in and out and around the modern buildings as they have been constructed by the dozens of workmen on campus. This has truly been the year of construction.
